A large snare drum was presented the company. It was a gift from Mrs.

for coming at once instead of waiting for symptoms to develop.

Upon Porch of Her Home—Was Native of Colchester—Had Lived on Laurel Hill For Last Four Years.

Stricken with angina pectoris, Mrs.
Victoria Wade was found dead Tuesday afternoon about 2.45 o'clock upon the porch of her home, No. 14 Whitaker avenue, Laurel Hill. Shortly before that she had been seen by neighbors to come out on the porch to shake some rugs. A little later, when they looked that way, it was seen that she had fallen on the porch, and when the neighbors investigated they found she was dead.

Word was sent to Dr. N. B. Lewis, who is acting medical examiner while Dr. Rush W. Kimball is away on vacation. Dr. Lewis viewed the body and gave his verdict as death from angina pectoris. It was learned that Mrs. Wade had recently complained of symptoms indicating this trouble.

Mrs. Wade, who is the widow of George Wade, is without relatives in this city, but a niece, Mrs. O. L. Haver, of Willimantic, was notified, and came here during the afternoon.

The deceased was a native of Colchester, where she was born 68 years ago. She was the daughter of Griswold N. Randall. Her early life was spent in Colchester and she was married there to George Wade. His death occurred in East Hampton about a dozen years ago. Mrs. Wade had lived for the last four years in this city. She was one of the most valued members of Comfort circle, King's Daughters, and the news of her sudden death was a severe shock to the circle members.

SLOT MACHINE RAID THROUGH
CONNECTICUT VILLAGES
State Police Swept Through Dayville and Vicinity to Central Village and Moosup.

The village of Moosup and others in that vicinity were all excitement Monday over an unexpected visit of a squad of the state police, who made a wholesale swoop on the keepers of places where slot machines were known to be in operation.

The party, five in number, traveled in automobiles, with chauffeurs, and evidently had the field well laid out in advance. They left Putnam in the early hours of the day and made a clean sweep down through the villages of Attawaugan, Ballouville, Williamsville, Dayville, Danielson, Wauregan, Central Village, Plainfield, Moosup, Sterling and Otisco. The party arrived at Moosup about noon, and made a sweep of the village, with but the exception of one poolroom, where the proprietor apparently had closed up for the day.

It appeared that the officers were satisfied that the place contained the articles they were looking for, so a warrant was immediately placed upon the entrance and maintained until about 9 o'clock in the evening when the proprietor arrived and the seizure of three machines was made.

The machines, which filled two automobiles, were taken to Central Village, where they were placed in the custody of Fred W. Mitchell, a town constable, there to remain to be reclaimed at the trials, or ordered confiscated by the courts.

The sight of a statement prevailed during the proceedings, and a number of the villagers stood their ground for hours that they might not miss any part of the movements of the police squad.

CHURCHMEN IN CONTROL
OF CITY GOVERNMENT.
Rev. C. M. Gallup Declares to Providence Congregation—Religion in Politics.

"The government of the city is controlled by churchmen," declared Rev.
Clarence M. Gallup, pastor of the Central Baptist church, in an address delivered at the Calvary Baptist church in Providence Monday night at a good citizenship rally under the auspices of the Providence Christian Endeavor union.

Rev. Mr. Gallup said that there had been a marked improvement in conditions in the city during the past few years. He stated that the proportion of Christian men in the city government, from the mayor down, is large.

"Providence compares well with other cities and great governments," he declared. "The church may not attempt to govern a city, but it has the relation of righteousness. The church may best express itself by spiritualiz-ing everything it comes in contact with."

"There is nothing that will create more interest in politics than the infusion of religion. The reason why many Christian men will not be in public life and take office is often because they have done something they are ashamed of. If we have the right view of legal citizenship, we will have the right view of national citizenship."

FUNERAL.
Mrs. Anthony Carter.

The funeral of Zoe Potter, wife of Anthony Carter, was held from her late was born in Canada. She was a resident of Montville for 35 years. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons and two daughters and a brother who a loyal wife and a kind, sympathetic mother. She did all she was able for the benefit of others, and all who knew her extend their sympathy to the mourning family.
